

NAME

splitfield

SYNOPSIS*splitfield COLUMN < infile.dat > outfile.pgm*DESCRIPTION

A command line utility that inserts a blank line each time a column changes value. This is useful for gnuplot's pm3d mode and pm3d2dat.

As input, it will read a whitespace delimited table. The program will locate lines where COLUMN "column" changes, and insert an extra blank line in it's output.

SEE ALSO*spyview3d(1), spyview(1), spybrowse(1), dat2pgm(1), gnuplot(1), pm3d2dat(1)*AUTHOR

This manual page was written by Oliver Dial <dial@mit.edu> for the Debian project (but may be used by others).